

the number of interacting partners as a function of the protein length line fitted using rlm

the number of interacting partners, log10 scale

