

The relationship between the number of publications per gene and the median MI score of interactions blue/line was fitted using robust linear regression, large and small scale experiments

