

The relationship between the number of publications per gene and the sum of MI score of the interaction.

blue line was fitted using robust linear regression, large and small scale experiments

